Communicating Clinically with Julia Esparza, MLIS, AHIP

4 hours, 4 MLA CE contact hours - Town Hall

Course Description:

As librarians leave their library offices to reach out to clinicians in their environment, there is an increasing need to know how to communicate with clinicians (physicians, nurses, and other healthcare professionals) in a manner that is professional but also adapts to the unique environment of the hospital floor or office setting. In this course, participants will learn about common techniques utilized currently by the instructor in communicating and providing information at the point of care. In addition, participants will learn about non-verbal cues in assessing the environment. Participants will listen and identify information needs from actual clinical rounds, review several articles, and write a clinical review/summary.

Agenda

Monday, March 10, 2013 (continued)

- 11:15am - 12:30pm Quality Resources to Provide Affordable Care and Keep You Efficiently Mobile
Alisha Miles, MLIS, AHIP, Assistant Director for Public Services,
Assistant Professor, Medical Library and Learning Resource Center
Mercer University School of Medicine

Description:

As hospitals have shifted their focus to the Affordable Care Act and Meaningful Use, it is important to understand where librarians can provide support. This presentation will provide a general overview of the Affordable Care Act and Meaningful Use while documenting ways librarians can assist their organizations within the library and at the point of care. Moving beyond the library to the point of care, participants will have an understanding and be able to apply resources to use at the point of care and to stay organized. Throughout the presentation an overview of the implication of apps/technology on privacy and patient satisfaction will be reviewed.
