Greetings from the President:

Last year at this time, I stated my "Farewells" in "Greetings From the President" not knowing at the time that I would be serving as the GHSLA President for another year. Due to unexpected events, the Executive Board appointed me to a second term as president. With a little hesitancy, I begin my second year as president, knowing that I was planning my own wedding about the same time as the GHSLA Annual Meeting.

My second term, however, has been easier than my first term, since I was quite familiar with my presidential role. Each year though is slightly different, because each Executive Board brings a new group of faces to the table. After the first couple meetings this year, the Board members really began to interact and network with each other.

Here are some of the highlights of this present Executive Board:

- GHSLA will have a combined annual meeting with the Alabama Health Libraries Association (ALHeLA) for the first time, which will occur on March 14-16 2001 in Columbus.
- The Consumer Health Committee chaired by Jan LaBeause publishes a chapter entitled "Resources" for Preventive Medicine and Patient Education to be published by W.B. Saunders in February 2001. GHSLA will receive $10.00 per published page of the chapter.
- The Strategic Planning Committee chaired by Donna Trainer creates a GHSLA "listserv."
- The GHSLA Webpage is being renovated with Webmaster Lee McCarley.
- The Nominating Committee, with a change in the GHSLA Bylaws voted on by GHSLA members, is chaired by the Past President instead of the President Elect.
- The Membership Committee chaired by Roxanne Nelson increases membership to record numbers.
- HelmsBriscoe, a meeting planning company, helps the Executive Board find meetings sites for future annual meetings in Atlanta 2001 and in Savannah 2002.

Yes, as President Clinton and I both write our farewell messages to our constituencies, I realize that my presidency did not have the glamour, publicity and enmity as the Clinton administration. I will, however, be able to fade back quietly into my role as reference librarian at Emory University as the new President Elect, Cathy Woolbright, is voted into office at the March Annual Meeting. So, I will just take a back seat and be available for any questions that the new Executive Board may have.

Thank you I enjoyed the opportunity serving as your GHSLA President once again.

GHSLA UPDATE

From the Editor:

I was told that some people were offended/hurt by my comments regarding the SC/MLA meeting held in Mobile, Alabama this past year. I certainly did not mean to offend anyone with my opinions about my personal experience at the meeting. I was not directing my comments to any specific persons or groups; it was just a general feeling that I had. However, if I did offend some with my comments, I apologize; my observations were just those- -my observations and not a blanket condemnation of anyone or of the SC group.

Finally, this is the last edition for me as Editor of the UPDATE. I cannot tell you what a pleasure it has been for me to be Editor. I have learned a great deal and have met the most wonderful people in GHSLA. I wish the incoming Editor, Shirley Williams, as much success and joy as I have experienced over the past 3 years. WoW! It is difficult to believe that 3 years have passed me by. Thanks to everyone in GHSLA who made my job such a joy!

Invitation to the Joint Annual Meeting 2001

The 2001 Annual Meeting of the Georgia Health Science Library Association and The Alabama Health Library Association will be in Columbus, Georgia, March 14 - 16, 2001.

Join your colleagues by the banks of the Chattahoochee River, surrounded by the mills that founded Columbus. Forge new friendships, weave new ideas into fresh approaches to work, and create an outreach to the community that surrounds our libraries. Rich in history, hard work and artistic venues, you will be located within walking distance of the State Theatre of Georgia, the Springer Opera House; the River Center (the new performing arts center); shops; unique eateries; historic homes, including Pemberton House - the home of the Coca Cola inventor; the River Walk, which winds along the banks of the Chattahoochee River for twelve beautiful miles; the Coca Cola Space Science Center; and the Civil War Naval Museum.

Rooms are reserved at the Columbus Hilton. Since the rate of $83 plus tax will be honored through the weekend, you may want to stay and see many of the other attractions in and around Columbus: a state of the art Museum; Callaway Gardens; Providence Canyon, also known as the Little Grand Canyon, etc. Be sure to tell them you are with the Georgia Health Sciences Library Association meeting. If you plan to fly, the hotel provides complimentary shuttle service from the Columbus airport; there is a courtesy phone at the airport.

You will be welcomed to Columbus at a reception at The Springer Opera House on Wednesday, March 14, 2001 from 6:00 PM-7:30 PM. After the reception, you will have the option of attending Phantom, by Arthur Kopit and Maury Yeston. Tickets are $16.80, but to get this discount price, you must make your reservation(s) and check payment made out to GHSLA (separate check from your registration check) to Cathy Woolbright by February 14, 2001. Please let me know as soon as possible if you will be attending so we can book enough seats! (cathy.woolbright@crhs.net).

Georgia's own Jocelyn Rankin, Ph.D., from the CDC, will be our Miriam Libbey/Keynote speaker to start our day of activities on Thursday. The subject of her talk will be: "Libraries Reaching Out--Lifeline to Our States and the World." Further, an afternoon panel will discuss outreach projects underway by many members of both states. Of course, we will also hear the latest from NLM, and at lunch we will hear all about Deskercise.

The banquet will be held on Thursday, March 15, 2001 from 6:00 PM-7:00 PM at the historic Columbus Convention and Trade Center, once the Columbus Iron Works--which has been wonderfully restored. At the banquet, you will be entertained by the magic of Gary Jordan. Gary Jordan is a well known local magician who has entertained many in Columbus.

Friday two CE courses will be offered: "Bringing Your Library's Resources to the Web," taught by Chandra Alston, and "SuperSearcher," taught by Bryan Vogh.

If you have any questions regarding the meeting, please contact me.
