Dear J.J.,

On behalf of consortium members I want to thank you for trekking out to Brook Run in November and speaking to us. You seem to be able to make an effective and absorbing presentation in any circumstances. Your graciousness and improvisation in the face of our room and equipment limitations was much appreciated.

I think the group was really stimulated by your enthusiasm and conviction that the 404-FreeNet should be and can be developed. I don't know if you recruited many individual volunteers from the audience (one sheet enclosed here), but I believe our consortium will continue to take an interest in the project.

Thanks again for your time and efforts.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Barry

Education and Program - Beth described today's program as "Value- added Services". Ellen, Jo, and Rosalind will present. The November program is open.

(OVER)
Collection Management - Fay reminded everyone that she needs their second quarter ILL statistics: Total rec'd from consortium members (filled by them); grand total received, total received from HSLCG, and the total sent to HSLCG.

She also wants copies of your routing tables and ILL profiles and policies if you haven't sent them already.

Public Relations/Newcomers - Rosalind reported that the handbook was almost finished, she only needs a few more facts. She also said she would do the copying if paper was supplied. Several members offered to donate paper.

Bylaws - Mary distributed copies of the revised bylaws. Members need to review them before the November meeting when the final vote will be taken.

MEMBERSHIP - Marilyn reported that she had invited the North Georgia libraries to attend our meeting and that representatives from Athens Regional Medical Center and Floyd Medical Center were present.

Supporting membership status for Chattahoochee Technical Institute was then put to a vote. There was some discussing concerning their small but growing health sciences collection. A motion was made to accept them into the Consortium, and it passed.

INTERNET - Elizabeth reported she is looking at INTERNET access for the Consortium and she will follow-up on this at the next meeting.

PROMOTION/PUBLICITY - Marilyn reported on the information she had obtained concerning answering phones for public TV in early December. She distributed a sign-up sheet for volunteers.

Quality filtering of the clinical literature by librarians and physicians

A study was conducted at the University of Pittsburgh to determine the effectiveness of the selection process by clinical medical librarians and to identify the criteria used by librarians and physicians to select relevant articles. The study analyzed the similarity between librarian and physician selections, the decision-making processes used by librarians and physicians, and the utility of librarian selections versus those of physicians. No significant differences in utility between librarian and physician selection were found, suggesting that librarians can recognize and select useful articles as effectively as physicians. Both librarians and physicians based selection decisions primarily on article title, abstract, and journal title. Librarians were more likely to focus on Medical Subject Headings (MeSH) descriptors, while physicians focused on clinical applicability or similarity to a specific case. Journal selection data indicate that the principle internal medicine journals were the most frequently selected sources. The study demonstrates that librarians can effectively serve a quality filtering function in the clinical environment, and they should consider extending quality filtering activities to other arenas.

Librarians traditionally have been involved in the filtering and evaluation of information. This role is assumed in collection development, reference services, database selection for mediated searching, and selective dissemination of information. In clinical medical library (CML) programs, quality filtering of the literature is essential, because the librarian strives to meet the patient care needs of the medical team in a timely manner. The clinical librarian’s success in quality filtering needs to be examined, through evaluation of their citation and article selections and analysis of their decision-making processes.

Falk Library of the Health Sciences at the University of Pittsburgh conducted a four-month study (December 1990 – March 1991) to determine the effectiveness of the clinical medical librarians’ article selection process and to identify criteria used by librarians and physicians in selecting articles related to patient care.

Coach: applying UMLS Knowledge Sources in an expert searcher environment

With the development of the Unified Medical Language System® (UMLS®) Knowledge Sources, the National Library of Medicine (NLM) has produced a resource of great potential for improving the searching of MEDLINE®. The Coach® expert searcher system, an in-house research project at NLM, is designed to help users of the GRATEFUL MED® front-end software improve MEDLINE search and retrieval capabilities. This paper describes the Coach program, the knowledge sources it uses, and some of the ways it applies elements of the UMLS Metathesaurus® to facilitate access to the biomedical literature.

INTRODUCTION

Since the early 1970s, the National Library of Medicine (NLM) has made searching the world’s biomedical literature faster and easier by providing information retrieval on the MEDLARS® family of databases. MEDLINE®, the largest and most frequently used of these databases, comprises over 7,500,000 citations and is searched more than 18,000 times a day on the NLM system alone. NLM’s system is estimated to account for approximately 20% of total online use of MEDLINE worldwide. The number of new user accounts and passwords issued by NLM for use of its online system has increased significantly in recent years. Almost all the new passwords are being issued to new end users[1]. To facilitate end-user access to these millions of citations, NLM developed a PC-based front-end program called GRATEFUL MED® GRATEFUL MED, which became available in 1986, now has more than 40,000 users. The GRATEFUL MED program and its use have been reported in many articles elsewhere[2–5].

As GRATEFUL MED has evolved to version 6 for the PC and version 1.5 for the Apple Macintosh®, NLM has added significant new functionality in response to users’ needs. Now, an adjunct program called Coach® is being developed by NLM researchers to help the GRATEFUL MED user improve retrieval from MEDLINE[6]. Coach is an expert searcher system with the primary function of applying the knowledge sources it uses to focus and limit retrieval. Coach analyzes the user’s search, interacts with the user by applying or suggesting alternative mappings from its knowledge sources, and then invokes GRATEFUL MED to submit the revised search back to NLM’s ELHILL® mainframe retrieval system.
Questioning the doctor’s orders

Hotline: Consumer Center doesn’t offer “second opinions,” just additional information that isn’t in medicalese.

By Shelley Emling
STAFF WRITER

The 1992 film “Lorenzo’s Oil” chronicled the real-life ordeal of parents seeking a cure for their young son’s degenerative nerve disease.

Doing research on even minor illnesses or treatments can be exhausting. Most people don’t even know where to begin to look.

That’s where a new medical information service being offered by the little-known Georgia Consumer Center comes into play. The service, which began this week, provides answers to questions — plus hours of research — on all sorts of medical topics, seven days a week, for a negotiable fee ranging from nothing to a high of $200.

“The medical profession is nervous about giving people the attention, or as much information, as they might need,” said Debbie Schechter, the center’s executive director.

Schechter and her husband, Daniel Sigelman, were made aware of the need for such a service when their son, Jonathan, was diagnosed with a brain tumor in 1991. They were told by a doctor that he must have had a brain tumor in 1991. They were told by a service when they were dead. But after extensive research, they failed to discover any agreement. “We found it would have had serious side effects,” Schechter said, “and we were relieved that we didn’t subject him to something that would have been painful to him.”

Jonathan died in 1992 at the age of 5, and a year later Schechter decided a medical hotline should be an important new part of the Georgia Consumer Center, which she had directed since its inception in 1989.

The non-profit center, funded with grants and contributions, lobbies the Legislature on consumer-related issues and was instrumental in getting Georgia’s lemon law on new cars a few years ago.

It’s my general feeling that the health-care consumer clearly needs to be more educated about a variety of issues, so this would be a good thing,” said Michael Clark, a spokesman for the State Health Planning Agency. “I don’t think there has been a great number of sources for the consumer in his or her effort to get information about medical issues.”

Assisting Schechter is Dr. Dawn Hassinger, who specializes in the treatment of tumors. They hope to respond to requests within seven days and plan to add additional staff, as necessary.

“An important new part of the center is to give people the opportunity to get information that isn’t medicalese,” Hassinger said. “Most people don’t know where to turn to get help. They want to know what’s going on and what they’re going to do next. When they’re scared, they don’t want to make decisions on their own.”

“Doctors won’t necessarily agree with each other. They operate under terrific time constraints and often don’t speak the same language as their patients. A second opinion gives the consumer a chance to find out what he or she needs.”

Schechter said. “This is not a replacement for a second opinion, but it’s a broader, wider view of the problem.”

For example, by tapping into medical data bases, the service is able to provide published studies on certain procedures, a list of questions the patient should ask his or her doctor and information on the effectiveness of certain medicines.

“Most people who call are being advised to take a certain step and they just want to be sure that they’re aware of the most recent medical journal information on the subject before taking that step,” Schechter said.

They also give free advice on how to do research yourself.

“We encourage people to do this on their own, and we want to educate people,” Schechter said. “People need to be able to make decisions based on real, researched information.”

Committee Reports

Education and Program - Beth and Marilyn announced topic of next meeting scheduled for May 26th at Northside Hospital. Representatives from Georgia Consumer Center (consumer resources) and Emory CancerWise Information Service (a comprehensive cancer telephone information resource providing individualized cancer information) will be presenting. Committee is working on topics for upcoming meetings.

Collection Management - Fay reported committee met and divided Consortium membership among committee to facilitate personally contacting each Consortium member. Goal is to produce an AHSILC Booklet that meets the needs of the Consortium. Fay reminded members to send in Quarterly/Yearly ILL Statistics. Several libraries have not responded.

Public Relations/Newcomers - Rosalind reported committee met. Mentors for New Librarian Project is progressing very slowly. To date, there have been no sign-ups. Committee will consult list of Consortium members for seasoned librarians to participate - would prefer volunteers. Contact Rosalind if interested. Mamie and Fay volunteered. Committee has begun contacting Library Schools; made known Consortium interest in participating in some of their activities; expressed desire to meet and work with library students from other countries; stated AHSILC has expertise to contribute to teaching. These are some ways our Consortium could support Library Schools. Mamie contacted Clark-Atlanta. At present, a medical library course is not being offered.

Rosalind asked if the Consortium wanted to interact with special libraries other than medical/science/hospital; i.e., insurance companies. Jo mentioned law libraries. Edie added to contact the law librarian in the law office. FDA is very interested; has a library in Atlanta; does a lot of work on OCLC. Consortium liked this idea. Mamie, Rosalind and Beth volunteered to make contacts.

Rosalind mentioned the Consortium needs to address hospitals that do not have librarians. Perhaps we could contact hospital administrators/public relations offices. Margarette suggested we send out an info sheet during National Library Week. This would be one effort towards improving communication between hospital management and librarians.

Rosalind reminded members of the upcoming combined GHSLA and Southeastern Conference of Hospital Librarians Meeting to be held in Atlanta, March 23-25. Registration forms distributed.

Mamie notified members of another opportunity for Consortium participation in the community. Ten workers are needed to assist Heart Track, Civic Center, April 9, 7:30 - 10:30 AM. Sign-up sheet distributed.

Online (Automation) Club - Elizabeth announced May program will feature ADONIS. No additional information on INTERNET.
Journal Club - Darlene reported Margarette Claypool and Pauline Hollmann have been asked to present at July meeting.

Membership - New membership list available. Notify Fran of any changes. Members needing handbook contact Rosalind.

Bylaws - Mamie will attach updated Bylaws to May meeting agenda.

SLA Meeting June 12-16

Marilyn is coordinating Dinner Buddies Program for this year's SLA meeting. Recruits are needed. Sign-up forms available. Return completed form to Marilyn. Arrangements may be made to attend Exhibits Only. Contact Karalyn.

AHSLC Logo

Mamie lead Logo discussion. Marilyn called MLA and received permission to Dr. Smart. Consortium will need to report back to MLA if and/or how we use Dr. Smart. Arrangements will need to be made to give MLA appropriate credit. Several suggestions were presented. Rosalind suggested that we ask nonlibrarians to critique the final draft and distribute among our respective library staffs for their input. Future agenda item.

FREENET

Marilyn reported on progress in establishing FREE public access NETWORK. Spearheaded by Solinet, Dekalb public library and Dekalb College Library, a mission statement/goals and objective will be drafted soon.

NEW BUSINESS

Mamie announced:

1.) SEMPUL (University of South Carolina) deadline was March 15. Contact person Karen Warren at (803) 733-3355.

2.) Sharon Cann and Mamie attended the GOLD class Inputing Serials - very informative.

3.) Table of Contents Sharing Project data needed. FAX list of professional library journals your library receives to Marilyn or Mamie as soon as possible. They will compile.

Sandra thanked everyone who signed up for GMSLA. Rosalind needs help with stuffing registration bags. Karalyn announced spaces remain in CE courses. Registration forms available.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fran announced Scottish Rite Children's Medical Center Family Resource Library has opened. A nurse is in the Library to answer questions via phone or in person 3PM-Midnight. She has recataloged book collection under subject only with no classification numbers. There are advantages to category arrangement of titles on the shelves - easier for library user to find materials on subject of interest and easier for librarian to weed, update and locate weak areas in the library's collection. Mamie mentioned she uses colored tape on spine to categorize titles.

Stephen reported GA Mental Health Institute's computer is working. ILL service resumed.

Rosalind announced: Consortium dues ($6.00) are due. Give to Rosalind.

Committee Reports

Education and Program - Beth reported committee is consulting the AHSLC survey that was done in 1992 for program ideas. The topics most requested have already been presented. Committee suggested that it was time for another survey. Perhaps, the educational needs of the Consortium have changed. Mamie reported new survey will be distributed in the fall. July and September program topics are pending. Suggested presenters and/or topics follow:
1.) Pauline - Weeding the Collection
2.) Rosalind - Consumer Health Information Libraries
3.) Mamie - Quickdoc online
4.) ILL stats: Using ILL stats to promote the library.
5.) Automated library functions: Members reported on automated library systems in use. A sign-up sheet was distributed. Signers indicate what system.
6.) Consider program ideas listed on survey.

Collection Management - Sharon reported committee met. Each person was given eight Consortium members to contact for an updated ILL profile. Supporting members on Decline were also contacted. A new ILL Profile Handbook anticipated in July/August. Mamie asked for tally of Consortium members on Decline and GOLD; 98% show of hands respectively. Mamie asked for reasons why not on/why dropping Decline or GOLD. Reasons for not on GOLD: putting in serial holdings; do not know much about it; we do not have union list on OCLC. Reason for not on Decline: use OCLC. The AHSLC November meeting will feature a mini workshop program on Online Club discussion group on Cells in Decline. There have been a lot of changes since our last Decline program two years ago.

Public Relations/Newcomers - Rosalind mentioned one way to attract new members is to interact with library school students. Strategic Planning Committee shared some ideas on ways to work with library school students:
1.) Invite students to attend Consortium Meetings; perhaps, present a program on what they are doing. In return, Consortium members could provide them with insight into what knowledge/skills are needed on the job.
2.) Participate in Colloquium (a function of Clark Atlanta Library School). At these Lunch and Learn Sessions, library students invite librarians from different libraries to speak.
3.) Inquire about internships which provide learning experiences for students and help for librarians at no charge to the institution. Darlene and Betty have experience with library student intern programs. Interns are not paid but usually receive course credit.

Nancy mentioned the Clark Atlanta Library School and SLA Mentoring Program which is more informal. Rosalind sends out applications, matching library school students with SLA mentors.

Rosalind shared news of the International Special Librarians Day held on April 21, 1994. Admission $7.00. Clark Atlanta library students presented activities of dance, storytelling, food, etc. from different countries.

Contact Rosalind if you locate prospective Consortium members. Gwinnett Medical Center and State Health Planning are interested.
The suggestion was made to encourage more swapping between Consortium members, librarians as well as support staff.

1.) Jo suggested we compile a list of what each library/institution has interesting, i.e., equipment, programs, unique shelving, etc. Rosalind volunteered to compile this list. Please bring info for list to next meeting or send to Rosalind.

2.) Sharon continued with possibilities of full day, lunchtime, one-on-one or Open House. Library Open Houses present learning experiences for novice librarians.

3.) Each library represented has an Open Door Policy - visits from colleagues are welcome.

Eugenia presented the idea of setting up a Bulletin Board online to facilitate the above. Rosalind will verify that Clark Atlanta Library School has a Bulletin Board and report at next meeting.

Online (Automation) Club - Elizabeth announced ADONDIS Program was very interesting. Plans are being made for a September Online Club follow-up panel on other full-text systems. She and Rosalind will look at other document delivery systems mentioned on the AHSLC surveys FAXED or mailed to Sharon.

Journal Club - Darlene reported Margarette Claypool and Pauline Hollman will be presenting at July meeting. Darlene requests input from Consortium members. Please send her a note re: topic/s you are interested in.

Membership - Fran thanked members for sending updates. Reminder that all changes must be submitted one week before next meeting. Message on full sheet of paper, phone call or FAX will be accepted.

Bylaws - Mary announced Final Draft of Bylaws attached to today's agenda.

Strategic Planning - Mamie reported executive committee met and looked at the issues brought up at the brainstorming meeting. Two committee members were assigned to address each task mentioned. Secondly, committee stated goal to get as many participants as possible on GOLD or Decline.

SLA Meeting June 12-16

Recruits for Dinner Buddies Program are needed. You may go in pairs. You don't have to go alone. All sign-up forms must be in one week before meeting. Contact Marilyn if you need a form or have questions.

Consortium Membership

Mamie sent out two membership packets - Gwinnett Medical Center and State Health Planning. Site visits will be arranged as soon as the packets are returned. Rosalind sent packet to Piedmont Hall Library (in Nursing Building).

AHSLC Logo

Marilyn is working with Bill Snell at Emory on a logo draft. Short discussion followed. Members asked to call Marilyn before middle of June with opinions.
FREENET

Marilyn mentioned as a whole Consortium members are interested. To date, no report. Future agenda item.

NEW BUSINESS

Mamie presented new area for Consortium consideration. Member of Kilpatrick and Cody Law Firm requested a copy of our Union List for infrequent ILL use. Firm would pay for ILL services. Members mentioned two options. (1.) Consortium could sell Union List to Firm and place money in flower fund. (2.) Consortium suggest Firm purchase from Region as we do. Consortium members voted for #2.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mamie announced:
1.) GOLD journal holdings must be entered by end of June. OCLC # needed to enter in GOLD. List of your holdings with OCLC # available for $30.00 from SEMFUL. Contact Karen Warren at (803) 733-3355.
2.) Table of Contents Sharing Project Data needed. Send/FAX list of professional journals your library receives to Sharon. She will compile and give each Consortium member a journal title to supply current Table of Contents at next meeting. At which time, other members may request an article from that Table of Contents.
3.) Beth participated in Heart Track, Civic Center, April 9th. She handed out bananas. Consortium will be looking for future community outreach opportunities.
4.) New facilities are Georgia Baptist Medical Center (Fay E. Evatt) and Dekalb Medical Center (Marilyn Barry).
5.) Mamie is taking summer off to be with her children. Call Egleston Library and leave a message if you need to contact her. Sharon will chair July meeting.

Rosalind stated that Lisa Boyd, Outreach Coordinator for RML has requested an Emory Health Sciences Library site visit (and Morehouse if time permits) for July 21st. Rosalind has invited Ms. Boyd to attend consortium meeting scheduled for that day.

Susan informed members that NLM scans ILL requests electronically; does not read RUSH; follow procedure and also FAX ALA form if you have a rush.

Pauline volunteered to compile PHE (Consumer Health) titles.
Ann announced library director at Kennesaw would like to host consortium meeting – perhaps March, 1995.

Ellen informed members of article on positive image in April issue of Glamor. Mamie asked Darlene to obtain a copy.

Karolyn announced free SLA Conference Exhibit Passes available at Hospitality Booth.

Providing Information to Your Health Professional
About our Service

Thank you for your interest in the Georgia Consumer Center's (GCC) medical information research service, which gives you access to detailed information concerning your health problems, and an objective source to help you weigh your treatment options.

The GCC's customized research reports on individual medical problems and treatment options include abstracts and some full text articles from medical journals, plus an evaluation of your problem in light of the research findings by GCC's medical director, Dr. Dawn Hassinger. In order to help you use the information we send you effectively, Dr. Hassinger evaluates your case based on this information, highlights the pertinent sections of the material, writes up an evaluation of the important points and possible treatment options, and prepares a checklist of questions which can help you to assess the best treatment available to you, or you may chose to pose to your doctor. At your request, we also provide the names and addresses of national experts who have published studies in the area in which you are interested. We can not warrant that all relevant studies will turn up in our search of the medical data banks. If you are not satisfied, we offer a full money back guarantee.

Dr. Hassinger's Background

Before graduating from Yale University School of Medicine, Dr. Dawn Hassinger received a Ph.D. in zoology from Rutgers University. She did a residency in internal medicine at Emory, and a fellowship in oncology at Yale. She served on the faculty of both the University of Iowa School of Medicine and Emory's Medical School, and is the author of nine articles published in medical journals. Most recently, she was the medical director of the Peachtree Hospice in Atlanta.
Fees

Fees for the above service vary according to the extent of research required. Most cases fall within our basic fee category of $100. For this fee, we research one or more questions; each question usually requires several "searches" in the computer data bank. An extremely complex case requiring the researching of many different treatment options, for example, might reach our maximum rate of $200. This is because within each treatment option, there are usually several questions that must be researched to adequately assess the appropriateness of that treatment for you. As you can see, some cases require vast amounts of research, while others may require only two to three hours of our time, which explains the range of prices. Any charge over our basic $100 fee is checked with you before we begin the research. You have the option at that time to cancel your request, with a full refund, reduce the search parameters to the amount you want to spend, or give us the green light to go ahead with the comprehensive report.

About the Georgia Consumer Center

The GCC, founded in 1989, is a non-profit organization advocating consumers' interests in such areas as health care and environmental health hazards. The group was instrumental in the passage in 1990 of the Georgia Lemon Law, which provides compensation to the purchasers of new "lemon" cars. Debbie Schechter, GCC's executive director, conceived of the medical information service when her son was diagnosed with brain cancer. As a result of extensive medical research, she and her husband were able to resist placing him in experimental studies that would not have helped him, but would have had severely disabling side effects. Prior to the GCC, Ms. Schechter was a staff attorney at the Public Citizen Health Research Group and the Center for Science in the Public Interest. Leon Eplan, president of the GCC's board of directors, is the Commissioner of Planning and Development for the city of Atlanta. Other board members include Mark Rudnitz, professor of law, Georgia State University, and GCC treasurer; and Jacqueline Lassiter, former director of the State of Georgia's Office of Consumer Services.

Ms. Pat Herndon
891 Pine Ridge Drive
Stone Mountain, GA 30087

Dear Ms. Herndon:

Thank you for your interest in the Georgia Consumer Center's (GCC) medical information research service, which gives consumers access to detailed information concerning their health problems.

The GCC's customized research reports on individual medical problems and treatment options include abstracts from medical journals, and when relevant, full text articles, on questions ranging from the treatments available for a particular type of cancer to the side effects of hormone replacement therapy. I review the method(s) used for the computer search(es) and the abstracts that are produced. Based on a review of the studies, I prepare a list of questions which may help you to assess the best treatment available to you, or which you may choose to pose to your doctor. At your request, we also provide the names and addresses of national experts who have published studies in the area in which you are interested. We can not warrant that all relevant studies will turn up in our search of the medical data banks. If you are not satisfied, we offer a full money back guarantee.

The usual fee for our service is $100. For our basic fee, we research several questions; each question usually requires one or more "searches" in the computer data bank. An extremely complex case, such as most cancer cases, requiring the researching of several distinct treatment options, would be charged at our maximum rate of $200. This is because within each treatment option, there are usually several questions that must be asked to adequately assess the appropriateness of that treatment for you. As you can see, some cases require vast amounts of research, while others may require only two to three hours of our time, which explains the range of prices. Any charge over our basic $100 fee is checked with you before we begin the research. You have the option at that time to cancel your request, with a full refund, reduce the search parameters to the amount you want to spend, or give us the green light to go ahead with the comprehensive report.

The Georgia Consumer Center provides a customized research report on your individual medical problem. Included are summaries and some full text copies of studies from medical journals, plus an checklist compiled by our medical director to help guide you in weighing your treatment options. Information is intended to supplement and aid in your interpretation of advice of your treating physician(s) and is not intended to be a substitute for such consultation. All requests for information will remain confidential. To receive your report, fill out the questionnaire and send it to the above address with a check or money order for $100. Additional fees up to $100 may be assessed for problems that require extensive research. You will be notified if your search will require additional fees before the work is begun, and will have the option to cancel your order at that time with a full refund, or reduce the search parameters to the amount you want to spend. Checks should be payable to the "Georgia Consumer Center."

Vocabulary:
"Sessio taurino is a rigorously nonquantitative technique for exploring paradigmatic transitions in situ"

Paradigm is an example; a pattern followed; a typical instance; a model or a mode for viewing the world. It is often an overriding viewpoint that shapes ideas and actions within a particular field or group.

WANTED: PHOTOS, ARTICLES, BUSINESS MEETING MINUTES, AND OTHER AHSLC MEMORABILIA

The Strategic Planning Committee of the AHSLC decided that good publicity for the group could be had by developing and displaying a poster at professional meetings such as GHSLA, Southern Chapter, MLA, etc. Sharon Cann, Mamie Bell, and Beth Poisson are spear-heading this group effort. Please help them by digging up and bringing what you can to the January 18th meeting.

THANK YOU!!

Strategic Planning Committee Meeting

February 8, 1996
9:30 - 12:00

Present: Edie Lacy, Darlene Kelly, Marilyn Barry, Rosalind Lett, Mamie Bell, Fay Evatt, Sharon Cann, Elizabeth Jackson, Marissa Ratcliff, Kathleen Desch, Connie Ruffner, Beth Poisson, Pauline Hollmann, Nancy Bryant, Ingrid Hendrix.

Collection Management - we expanded Strategic Plan Goal 2, Objective 2 to include providing information on different technology types/brand names/products that each consortium member has used now or in the past. It is called "shared networking support". This information will be gathered by CM in an expanded survey/questionaire which will be ready for distribution by May's meeting. Survey includes use of decline, Internet, cataloging serials automation, fax machines, pc's, and other information needed from other committees.

Education & Program - it was agreed to include questions in the above survey about member's interest in EP topics. In addition there will be an informal survey of interests at each AHSLC meeting. It was also suggested that we hold at least one consortium meeting at other locations like the Atlanta History Center or American Cancer Society. EP would ask these host institutions to provide a program/speaker for the group. EP will look into the possibility of arranging a "Brown Bag Lunch" at a place of interest. This will be a sporadic event and we will invite members/students. Each person is to bring their own food & beverage. This idea will be expounded on later by EP.

Journal Club - the above mentioned survey will also include subject interests for the JC. A need to broaden the subject scope of the JC was discussed. JC will hold a ten minute brainstorming session once per year at an AHSLC meeting to get ideas. JC will also prepare a "pre-topic" list for discussion.

Membership List - it was decided that the ML needs to be easier to use and entail additional needed information. Darlene will bring this up at the next meeting and find out what other info. is desired by the group. This may include putting other library personnel on list, regrouping libraries where needed and using cross references (e.g. Kennestone see Promina), and continue to keep correct information up to date (list should be carefully checked at each meeting). A notice will be sent to each person on the Guest list asking if they wish to remain on the list. If "no" or no response is gotten, they will be removed from list.

Public Relations/Newcomers - Strategic Plan Goals 3 and 4 would mostly be under the auspices of PR. In order to promote the consortium further it was decided that AHSLC name tags (with logo) will be created for members to wear at national and local meetings. We may also sponsor breaks at local/national meetings and get a sponsor to purchase the refreshments. We might sponsor a "Dutch Treat Meal" at GHS LA.

Other committees will be discussed at the next Strategic Planning meeting to be scheduled for April.

Overall AHSLC Meetings - meeting packets should go out before every meeting AT LEAST by the first of the month. Some people are receiving meeting info. only one or two days before the meeting.

AHSLC Secretary, Marissa Ratcliff, has volunteered to put together AHSLC mailing labels to be given to each host institution for mailout of packets. This will be the responsibility of the AHSLC Secretary. Marissa will work with Fran Golding to get needed information. Marissa has also volunteered to make the AHSLC name tags and will work with Connie Ruffner to coordinate this activity.

II. Minutes

In addition, three names were not included on the July attendance sheet, they are; Rosalind Lett, George Prince and Marilyn Barry.
III. OLD BUSINESS

A. Committee Reports

1. Strategic Planning- Edie reported that the committee met in September to discuss several issues. This included examining the different description of the various committees; having break out sessions, possibly at the November meeting; proposing that the Public Relations/Newcomers committee become two separate committees; compiling library profiles that are available and having that information for the AHSLC Membership Handbook. Connie has a few extra copies of the handbook. The committee has suggested that the handbook continue to be updated and used as the major handbook for the consortium. It has also suggested that the Newcomers committee will be responsible for updating the handbook, along with submitting applications for membership. The committee also proposed that the Ad-Hoc committees become standing committees, except for the Automation grant committee.

2. Education/Program - The host and dates for 1997 will appear with the minutes at the November meeting.

3. Collection Management- Nancy reported that she has received 28 of out 35 automation surveys. Copies of the ILL guidelines that were approved this year are available, along with ILL statistics forms. Statistics will be collected for Oct-Dec., stats will available for review or copy in March. The committee will be evaluating the survey, possibly putting together a networking directory, also using the information for grants.

4. Public Relations- Connie reported that 2 applications were submitted, Girija Virjay at Prudential and David McCullough at the Georgia School of Prof. Psychology. Connie presented the consortium with AHSLC buttons to be worn at various meetings. The cost was $52.00 and members contributed to the cost. There will be a network get together following the meeting at Mick's in Underground. Pat Herndon asks whether the networking socials were helpful or should the focus be changed. Members felt that the networking socials were helpful, but maybe have some events during the off months and/or with other library groups.

5. Automation Club- Rita acknowledged Linda Venis for doing a deal of the work. The next meeting for the automation club will be in November at the VA. This will be combination with the Education program, "New Technologies for Accessing and Manipulating Biomedical Data." The committee has worked with strategic planning in setting goals for 1997.
6. Journal Club- Beth reported that the journal club presented today, Kathleen Desch and Joe Swanson, were excellent presentators. The next journal club will be in January and two members have volunteered for next year, Mamie Bell and Mary Larsen. The committee welcomes ideas and helpful hints and they have worked on goals for 1997.

7. Membership List - Fran reported that the guest list is becoming very long. She asked that if anyone knows of someone who should no longer be on the guest list, let her know.

9. JCAHO - Marilyn reported that the committee hopes to promote awareness of hospital libraries accreditation resources, for example MLA has an information management web page; also at each meeting the committee would like keep the membership updated on who is being surveyed and will continue to assist in anyway.

B. Sharon thanked those members who submitted pictures for the AHSLC poster however, more are needed. The AHSLC poster will be exhibited at the Southern Chapter meeting in Memphis on October 14, 1996.

C. Memorandum of Agreement- a blank agreement was distributed to those members who do not have a current agreement on file.

D. Mamie has a new email address: mbell@mindspring.com.

E. Pat Herndon noted corrections in the Shepherd Center spelling and address, 2020 Peachtree, NW., Atlanta.

IV. New Business

A. Darlene reported that 2 applications were distributed for review by the membership. They are the Prudential Center for Health Care Research and the Georgia School of Professional Psychology. If members have any questions or comments please see Edie or Darlene. A site visit is planned for the latter part of October, members are invited to participate. Voting on the acceptance of these 2 applications will take place at the November meeting.

B. The consortium is actively looking for volunteers for 1997 officers and committee persons. A blue survey sheet was distributed at the meeting, recruiting for a chair-elect, secretary and statistician, along with committee members. Committee persons have been asked to remain on a committee at least for 2 years. These sheets should be returned to the nominating committee.

A. Committee Reports
1. Collection Management - no report

3. Membership - no report. Fran Golding stated any change of address or library personnel should be e-mailed to her.
4. Journal Club - Beth Poisson reported that today's journal club topic had been on paraprofessionals in the library and on the image of librarians.
5. Strategic Planning Committee - no report. Connie Raffner is the new committee chair.
6. JCAHO Committee - no report per Steve Koplan. Marilyn Barry asked if anyone had been recently surveyed. Linda Venis shared her recent experiences at Kennestone and Cobb hospitals. She said that the surveyor's primary focus surrounded after-hours library access, use of Medline and resource sharing agreements. Linda did participate in the Information Management interview. Issues discussed at that meeting involved level of theft of library materials, abusing the privilege of photography whether or not the library had Medium access. The interview was until Linda if she believed we would ever have a paperless library. Linda told him no! The tour of her library lasted about five minutes. The IM interview lasted about one hour.

7. Nominating Committee- Sharon Cann stated that there is not report but that the chair had been handed to Darlene Kelly.

IV. NEW BUSINESS

A. Introductions
1. Carol Burns introduced Mia Sohn, new reference librarian at Emory University Health Sciences Library. Mia comes to Emory from Providence Hospital in Southfield Michigan.
2. Marilyn Barry introduced Trish Nicola, new librarian at DeKalb Medical Center. Trish comes to DeKalb from the Gwinnett County Public Library System.

B. Committees
1. Edie Lacy distributed the new committee rosters. She explained the new documentation that had been prepared for the committee chairs. She reviewed the new committee arrangements as they had been proposed by the strategic planning committee.
2. Edie expressed concern over the current arrangements for Journal and Online clubs. Beth Poisson suggested that those committees become part of the Education Committee, reporting their activities to the Education Committee Chair. After some discussion it was decided that the existing chair of Online and Journal clubs report to Fay Evatt, Committee Chair for Education.
3. Edie pointed out that there is no chair of the JCAHO committee. Rosalind Lett, Pat Herndon and Pam Queen volunteered to serve on the committee. Edie will look for a chairperson.
4. The committees broke off for individual discussions. Mamie asked for committee chairs to return the documentation that Edie had distributed with any corrections noted.

V. ANNOUNCEMENTS

A. Paula Forehand of Saint Joseph’s Hospital is now Paula Christian following her recent wedding.
B. Sharon Cann is currently serving on the GOLD Serials Committee. Her term is about to expire. She invites nominees to fill her slot starting in June. The Committee meets twice a year. This a committee of the Georgia Public Library Services. Sharon also announced that GPLS is moving from downtown to Century Center at Clairmont and I-85. Sharon also offered coaching for anyone needing assistance inputting serials data into the GOLD union listing. Marilyn Barry asked how many felt that their libraries were “under-achievers” in inputting their data. Several persons including Linda Venis, Jane Clark, Rosalind Lett, Benedette Wright, Rita Clifton and Ann Kramer and Pat Herndon raised their hands. Marilyn agreed to investigate ways as a consortium that we could improve the input process.
C. Linda Venis reminds us to send the fourth quarter ILL statistics to her. ILL statistics for October-December 1996 are required. Any format is acceptable.
D. The Collection Management Committee reminded everyone to update their holdings list through the University of South Carolina. The deadline is March 15. Everyone is also encouraged to review their routing tables, following the suggested guidelines distributed last spring regarding which library should be placed in which cell. Pat Herndon reminded everyone the decision to place a library in a certain cell is the dictated by the lender, not the borrower, even though the borrower prepares the table.
E. The next meeting will be at Majors on March 20, 1997.
F. Mamie Bell requested that members send copies of their policy manuals to her. She stated that she would be willing to share information she collects from member libraries.
G. Marilyn Barry announced that the GHSLA Update will be distributed soon, to include information on the March 12-14 meeting in Augusta. The title of meeting will be "Par Excellence: Driving and Performing".

H. Rita Clifton would like to see Internet as an agenda item for each meeting. She suggests that we bring Internet information to each meeting and that good Internet addresses be included in our meeting minutes.

I. Nancy Bryant sent the message that the return rate for the Automation Survey distributed last year was 96%. She thanks everyone. She will be using the information to evaluate the needs of the consortium in hopes of submitting an automation grant proposal.

VI. MINUTES

VII. ADJOURNMENT

IV. OLD BUSINESS
A. Committees
Collection Management: no report
Membership List: Fran says everything is okay. She will add Darlene Kelly to the list.
Programs- Fay reports that all 1998 meetings have been assigned. She is requesting hosts for the 1999 meetings. Committee members will contact hosts about program ideas. On-line/Journal Club- Rita Clifton has arranged for a concise presentation for the July AHSLC meeting of the program presented at the last Southern chapter meeting titled "Mining the Internet". Fay says that Beth Poisson will coordinate the September and November journal clubs. Darlene Kelly suggests we carefully monitor the time allotted to our presenters to make sure that they have time for a thorough presentation when the topic they are covering is of prime interest, such as today's presentation on GALILEO.

Rosalind Lett suggests that we try to regularly include reports from the regional and national meetings such as MLA, SLA and LLA. Rita says she and Brenda will carefully judge times for the next meeting.

Public Relations- Marissa Ratcliff is still working on a form for a descriptive profile of each member library. She is even considering including Lycos maps for a uniform presentation of directions to each institution. She will take her prototype to the next Strategic Planning meeting.

Networking- Marissa is coordinating after the meeting social gatherings. If you have suggestions for places to go send information to her.

Strategic Planning- Connie Ruffner is hosting a meeting of the committee next week. She needs the names of those planning to attend so that they may pass through Solvay security. She hopes to have all officers and committee chairs in attendance. The meeting must start at 9:30 so it can conclude by 12:00.

Bylaws- no report

JCAHO- Brenda Curry-Wimberly reports that Northside was recently surveyed and did well. The surveyor asked Brenda to describe her customers and asked had she performed a needs assessment. She commented that they asked the question, "Why do you work at this institution?" during the leadership interview. Brenda said the interviewers were interested in the ways various members of the hospital contributed to patient education efforts. When touring the library, the surveyor asked about infection control and safety issues. Specifically asking about infection control of audiocassette player headsets.

Pay at Georgia Baptist was also recently surveyed. She also heard the "Why do you work here?" question. The surveyor did not come to the library or ask Fay questions during the Information Management interview. Fay was prepared with a written report.

Rosalind Lett reports that Crawford Long will be surveyed as a pilot project for the Network certification process sometime between June and October 1997.

Edie Lacey at Piedmont was recently surveyed. She participated in the Patient Education and Information Management interviews. The surveyors toured the library.

Brenda suggests that we all share our needs assessment tools. Bring samples to the next meeting.

Rosalind recalled a great presentation by Chris Jones at SLA. Suggestions were offered on ways to induce response to surveys.

Nominating Committee- Darlene Kelly reports that she and Beth Poisson are on the committee looking for more volunteers to serve on the committee.

Statistics- Linda Venis is still waiting on statistics from seven libraries. Linda is inputting the data into an Access file.

V. NEW BUSINESS
A. GALILEO- Pat Herndon presented the information she had gathered on the process for the consortium to use to approach the GALILEO steering committee for membership. Her initial understanding is that for-profit institutions are not allowed access. The information will be presented to the Strategic Planning Committee and the executive committee will proceed with drafting a proposal to the GALILEO steering committee. Some discussion followed.

B. Beth Poisson has a new job as librarian at Morehouse Family Practice Center.

C. Paula Forehand Christian of St. Joseph's is recovering from surgery. She might appreciate a note or a call. Fay shared Paula's address and telephone number with the group.
D. Guests- Phil Jones is a guest from London Guildhall University. He is on an exchange program with Elizabeth Jackson, Ms. Jackson is in London. He would appreciate the opportunity to help answer pharmacy questions to hone his search skills.

E. Internet Corner-Linda Venis presented us with a hand-out on good Internet sites.

F. Announcements-

IV. OLD BUSINESS
A. Committees
Collection Management- no report
Membership-please remember to send all changes to Fran Golding, especially phone number changes.
Education- Fay reports that all of the meetings for next year are arranged. She read the list aloud. (See attached list.)
Journal Club-Beth reported on the presentation that preceded this business meeting.

Online Club- no report

Public Relations-no report, but Edie shared that Marissa, former committee chair, is now working at Emory University in the Interlibrary Loan Department.

Newcomers-no report

Strategic Planning-Connie not here to report but Edie shared that the Strategic Planning Committee had to cancel a meeting that had been planned for last week. Look for a rescheduled meeting early in 1998.

Bylaws- no report

JCAHO-Rosalind reports that NN/NLM has a new DocKit on JCAHO preparation. She states that the kit has several examples of assessment tools. Rosalind says that anyone may come to her library to see the kit. Edie suggested that Rosalind bring it to the next meeting. Rosalind also shared that both Emory and Crawford Long have recently passed a JCAHO survey and that Emory Healthcare System has also been surveyed and done well.

Nominating- Beth Poisson reported for Darlene Kelly. She thanked everyone for taking the time to fill out nomination surveys and for volunteering for committee assignments. With the information gathered from those surveys, the nominating committee prepared a slate of nominees. This slate was Faxed to members two weeks ago. Information on committee assignments will be distributed prior to the January meeting. Any committee chairs that have served two years will be stepping down.

B. Application for membership by the Georgia Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped

Edie reported that she, Connie Ruffner, Pat Herndon and Sharon Cann made a site visit to the library. They were very impressed with this unusual library. Edie showed an example of a Braille serial publication. Sharon explained the role that the librarian Linda Koldenhoven plays in the Georgia network of Libraries for the Blind and Physically Handicapped and her position within the Georgia Department of Technical and Adult Education. She and Pat both expressed their admiration of the energy that Linda has brought to her position in her library. Both expressed that Linda would be a great asset to the AHSLC. The group that made the site visit suggest that the library be considered for membership as a supporting member.

Sharon Cann made a motion that Georgia Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped be admitted as a Supporting Member of the Atlanta Health Sciences Libraries Consortium. Fay Evatt seconded the motion. Edie Lacey called for a vote. The vote was unanimous in favor of the motion.

C. Columbia West Paces Ferry

Edie announced that West Paces is no longer a member of the Consortium. She stated that AHSLC members might want to contact Evelyn Payton at the Region 2 to request that West Paces be removed from individual routing tables. Pat Herndon said that Evelyn had suggested that we send her one list from the entire group that tells her in which cell West Paces falls on each library’s routing table. We will try to gather that information at or before the next meeting.

D. AHSLC Union List

Marilyn asked if anyone had received the paper copy of the 1997/8 AHSLC Union list from Karen Warren at the University of South Carolina. No one has the list. Marilyn asked if everyone had received the letter from Karen Warren announcing the Internet access to the AHSLC union list.
V. New Business

III. MINUTES
No corrections were made to the minutes of the last meeting, with Rosalind Lett moving for approval, Anne Kramer seconding, and approval of members granted.

IV. OLD BUSINESS
Paula is putting together the member profiles from the information forms faxed out. If you were unable to complete the form, Pat reproduced it double-spaced, contact her for another copy.

Membership committee- Faye says: 1) to contact her with any changes. 2) She sent out a membership packet to Angie Goss, after locating it. 3) She was approached by an interested librarian at GHSLA, Cathy Woolbright from Columbus Regional, for membership in AHSLC.
Considerations to be made include geographic distance, ability to uphold bylaw restrictions and long distance phone calls. It was pointed out that she has quite an extensive collection. By the July meeting, her application will be back for review by the members and we will proceed from there.

Technology-
Edie Lacy reported on changes in the copyright laws—
1) Everyone needs an updated copy of the law and to read it.
2) Instead of stamping, go to a journal's copyright page, copy it, and attach it to the article. If unavailable, may use traditional stamp.
3) May be best to put the additional page at the end of the article, so as not to create more confusion.
4) The page must match the article issue, not a general copy.
5) Places to display the copyright law—copier, printers, ILL forms.
6) Distinguish and clarify between copyright licenses and contracts with software or online database companies.

Linda Venis stressed positioning of law near internet access workstations and printers. Also Linda says there are lots of changes in PubMed. Any complaints that we need to voice as a group can be sent to Mamie Bell for collaboration.

Marilyn Barry announced that Ingrid Hendrix has set up the 25th anniversary AHSLC web page.

Beth Poisson called for any ideas for future meetings, particularly the July meeting at Northlake. Edie mentioned a physician at Piedmont who had a sabatical in England recently and visited several medical libraries, taking many photos. Perhaps he could make a presentation, if not in July, another time.

The topic of vendor attendance was broached again, because of contact by interested companies. Rosalind suggested that we invite all in the industry to serve on a panel, to have a fair shake at our audience. Some vendors have already approached us. Anne Kramer said we should approach them, if interested in their products. Both Ebsco and MD Consult have requested a program slot. Various comments on this topic proceeded to be offered including:
Some company representatives are librarians, as well.
Dedicate two meetings that they may attend—have them work around our schedule.
Restrict them from our business portion of the meetings.
The by-laws will have to reflect any major changes we make to our current process of vendor participation. Pat asked for a motion to change how we handle these situations. Specifically, no objection was made to continuing with the by-law guidelines to approve any vendor presentations; therefore, a motion was made to allow Mdconsult and Ebsco to be on our program. Rosalind will approach others, too. The invitation will be extended to others. Is this issue broad enough for a committee to be set up? Who will send the invitations? It was determined that this fell under the program committee's umbrella. Any other information should be forwarded to Beth Poisson for them to discuss. Since the by-laws have no specific guidelines, we will await the program committee's report and table any decisions for the mean time.

JCAHO—no report

No new web sites were shared.

V. NEW BUSINESS
Pauline Hollmann reported on the Unicoi GHSLA meeting's topic of Alternative Medicine. It presented an excellent opportunity for inexpensive MLA approved credit. Remember the next meeting is at Sea Palms Resort, St. Simons Island.

Marilyn Barry does the GHSLA web page with a new logo and job listings.
Beth Poisson reported on MLA, particularly about the dues issue—the vote will be sent out to all members.

Rosalind discussed the issue of the single slate for MLA officers. Name change possibilities were also discussed for MLA.

Linda Venis reminded us that memorandum of agreements from member libraries of AHSLC need to have current signatures of the appropriate authorities.

Lastly, the Galileo access topic was broached with the realization that the Board of Regents had deferred sending our request. State representatives and Jocelyn Rankin at Mercer Medical were contacted about their efforts. Various approaches were discussed, including that we will need more help because it is not the best alternative to request changing a law. We need to have information to talk to the Atlanta General Legislative Council and CIO of Georgia. From us we need to document how we serve education in the state—students in any situation. Jocelyn Rankin has covered her library subscription under a Woodruff Grant, but what after it expires? How can we fund in AHSLC? We will need permission for use first and may need to apply for a grant for costs. Any questions please send to Edie, Marilyn, or Pat.

Pat adjourned the meeting at 3:52.

Respectfully submitted,

Pamela Queen, AHSLC Secretary
